

Dr. Harald Seidler

Since 1996, Dr. Seidler has held the position of President of the German Association of Hearing Impaired persons.

As a private ENT specialist, he has been running his own practice in Neunkirchen / Saar since 1987. He is also the chief physician of the ENT department of the Neunkirchen Clinic, an academic teaching hospital. Since 2006 he is head physician for rehabilitation of ENT diseases, tinnitus, hearing impairment and cochlear implant department at the Bosenberg Clinic in St. Wendel.

Dr. Seidler has a hearing impairment since his childhood and is a wearer of a cochlear implant since 2008.